20 October 2015

Dear Lu Hao,

On behalf of the Harvard-MIT Mathematics Tournament (HMMT), I formally invite the delegation of 16 students, 1 teacher, and 1 coach under Shenzhen Middle School to this year's February tournament. Please see a partially completed list of accepted individuals and relevant information on the following page. The event will take place at Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts on 20 February 2016, with optional events on 19 February 2016.

HMMT is a biannual mathematics tournament for high school students, organized by students from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard University. Each November and February, HMMT hosts a competition for over 800 students from around the world, including a small number of international schools. By providing an engaging and challenging competition for students from across the nation and internationally, we hope to promote mathematical excitement among the students, while simultaneously providing a means for an exchange of mathematical cultures.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss any questions or concerns you may have; I can be reached at davidliang@college.harvard.edu. I ask that you ensure prompt approval of the contestant's visa application. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,
